

HAWKS CAPTURE CSM VOLLEYBALL TOURNAMENT

September 14, 2009 - The College of Southern Maryland (CSM) volleyball team won the CSM Invitational Tournament, defeating Potomac State in the final 3-0. It was a rematch of the final from last year's tournament, which Potomac State won in five games. This year CSM had no problems in the final, winning 25-19, 25-12, 25-18.

Cape Fear defeated Pitt (NC) to capture third place. It was the only match to go five games, as the Sea Devils prevailed 25-13, 20-25, 26-28, 25-21, 16-14.

CSM's Shelby Barnes and Sarah Cobaugh were selected to the All Tournament Team, while Ashley Wolfe was the tournament MVP.

The Hawks are 14-2, have now won 12 matches in a row, and are currently ranked 19th in the country.
